

City of Hinesville News Release

Contact: Christy DeLoach
cdeLoach@cityofhinesville.org
912-408-3573 (office) • 912-271-6460 (cell)

City Hall to Close at 12:00 Noon on Thursday, September 29, 2022

HINESVILLE, Ga. (September 29, 2022) – As a result of Tropical Storm Ian, City Hall and the Municipal Courts will be closed at 12:00 noon, Thursday, September 29, 2022, & all-day Friday, September 30, 2022. Normal operating hours will resume on Monday, October 03, 2022.

Trash services will be suspended and are expected to resume on Saturday, October 01, 2022

Public Transit & Paratransit service will be suspended and will resume on Monday, October 03, 2022.

For more information, visit www.cityofhinesville.org

####

ABOUT THE CITY OF HINESVILLE:

The City of Hinesville was established in 1837 and is recognized as one of the fastest growing cities in the State of Georgia in both size and population. As the largest city in Liberty County, it serves as the county seat and is home to more than 35,000 people.