*I do hereby understand that if the inspection fails, a state licensed electrician must obtain an electrical permit and make any and all necessary corrections. The electrician will schedule the inspection with the City of Hinesville Inspections Department and be present at the time of the inspection. Upon passing the inspection, the appropriate power company will be notified to reconnect the electrical service. Once the power is reconnected, it will be the responsibility of the applicant of this request to contact a licensed electrician to assess the electrical distribution system for any evident electrical hazards or defects after the electrical service is restored and prior to the building being occupied.
